Narrative Summary:

THE CONSUMER CONFIDENCE REPORT (CCR) RULE: This rule is an important part of the 1996 Amendments to the Safe Drinking Water Act (SDWA). The CCR final Rule, which became effective September 18, 1998, provides a framework that water suppliers will use to give consumers information on their drinking water. Under 40 CFR Part 141 Subpart O, all community water systems (CWSs) were required to provide their customers with an annual quality report or CCR by October 19, 1999. Some CWSs have delivered the first round CCR reports to their customers but some did not comply with this rule. The majority of the enforcement actions listed as SDWA violations are the water systems that did not comply with the first round CCR rule and were targeted for the administrative orders by EPA Region 6.

PETROLEUM WASTEWATER RECYCLING, OKLAHOMA CITY, OK: The Region filed a Complaint on Petroleum Wastewater Recycling for violations of the Resource Conservation & Recovery Act (RCRA). The facility was storing hazardous waste without a permit. The facility had not notified EPA or the Oklahoma Department of Environmental Quality of hazardous waste management activity and had stored hazardous waste longer than the one year limitation stipulated by RCRA. The Complaint assesses a civil penalty of $1,550,727, requires PWR to immediately cease accepting hazardous waste, and remove all hazardous waste stored on site.
